Download CODEX – ONE FTP LINK – TORRENT.A social care bill that proposes to allow patients to end their own lives is the result of years of campaigning by Macmillan, the charity providing care for people with incurable illnesses. MPs on Wednesday approved the Assisted Dying Bill 2019, after the draft legislation won the backing of the public, the health secretary, the medical profession, the church, church leaders, the police and the victims of human trafficking. At a late night sitting of the Commons on Wednesday, MPs voted by 523 votes to 43 to send the bill to the House of Lords. It is the first time anyone has successfully passed a law that allows people to die with dignity. :: How you can help The bill is now in the hands of the government's top legal official, Lord Charles Falconer, who is deciding whether it will become law. Shadow home affairs minister Rachael Maskell said: "We're going to have to do it ourselves, we've got to move into assisted dying, we haven't got time to wait and see what the Lord Chief Justice may say." Mr Brown backed the bill after MPs voted by 523 votes to 43 to send the bill to the House of Lords. It is the first time anyone has successfully passed a law that allows people to die with dignity. We're going to have to do it ourselves, we've got to move into assisted dying, we haven't got time to wait and see what the Lord Chief Justice may say Rachael Maskell, Labour He said: "I welcome today's vote by the House of Commons that is an important step in our work to ensure people facing the most agonising and cruel decisions have the choice to 570a42141b
